Jackman

Havre, Montana, July 12, 1915.

President Robert A. Falconer, D.D., LL.D.,
University of Toronto,
Toronto, Canada.

My dear Dr. Falconer:-

In reply to your letter of the 6th inst., I have this morning sent you a telegram accepting the position of lecturer in Political Economy under the conditions stipulated; and I have no hesitation to leave with you the question of promotion both in rank and remuneration, knowing that your cordial interest in all that concerns the welfare of the members of your Faculty will invariably enable you to do your utmost for them.

It will be a great privilege to return to my alma mater and to render to it the highest service I may be able to contribute; and it will be my greatest satisfaction to advance all the interests which centre in your office. I look forward to the delightful associations with the men in the department, whose kindness and hospitality were so congenially shown to me during my few days in Toronto recently, and I am anticipating the still closer association with them as colleagues and personal friends.

I am writing Professor Mavor by this mail; and I shall come to Toronto early in September to complete preliminary arrangements for the work of the ensuing year.

In assurance of my loyalty to you and to all the responsibilities that are connected with the fulfilment of the highest service, I beg to remain,

Yours very sincerely,

Wm. Jackman.

Wm. Jackman, Esq.,

Havre, Montana.

Dear Sir:

In the absence of President Falconer I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter and telegram regarding your appointment as Lecturer in the Department of Political Economy. It will be brought to the attention of the President on his return.

Yours sincerely,

President's Secretary.
